APPEAL TO UNIVERSITY ALUMNI CONTROVERSY OVER INSECURE CANDIDATES FOR COMMISSIONER-CONDITION OF THE JAIL.

> Councilmen Cited to Appear Before Court in September to Answer Rule-Briefs.

> > Evening Star Bureau,

No. 701 King St., Bell Telephone No. 106, ALEXANDRIA, Va., August 11, 1902. For some years past the jail in this city has been in such a dilapidated condition that prisoners have escaped with apparent ease. The jail inspectors repeatedly reported the unsafe and generally insanitary condition of that institution to the corporation court and their recommendations were referred to the city council for action, but no steps looking to the improvement of the jail were taken, and finally, several months ago, Judge C. E. Nicol of the circuit court took a hand in the matter and issued a rule, returnable on September 1, requiring the members of the city council to show cause why they should not be declared in contempt of court in failing to discharge their duty in regard to the jail. Shortly after this rule was issued council made an appropriation to be applied to the fall im-provements, but the work has not yet been started, and so far as known no arrangements have been made to begin the repairs in the near future. All of the members of the council will have to appear in court at the September term to answer the rule issued by Judge Nicol. Long Police Court Docket. Henry Washington, colored, had taken French leave of the chain gang, but had been overhauled by William Travers, the overseer of that institution. Twenty days were added to his original sentence, and a ball and chain will have a tendency to hold him until he serves his time out.
